

Five Islands Farm is looking for someone amazing to work with us this summer! Are you creative, love people and working hard? We work hard and have fun doing it! Are you someone who has knowledge or interest in good food, wine, craft beer, gardening, and local craft?

This job requires a quick learner who can lift and carry up to 50 lbs., stand or walk for the majority of the day, is comfortable using a computer, is able to multi-task and has the confidence to work independently (after training) when necessary. Do you feel comfortable working in a fast-paced, busy environment making sincere connections with people and making others feel welcome and at home all while getting the job done? Retail experience not necessary but preferred. If this sounds like you, please join us this summer and be a part of something beautiful!

This job is a part-time (20-30 hours per week) seasonal job with weekdays and some weekends required. Great pay commensurate with experience and generous employee discounts. You must be available to work from mid-June through Labor Day (Sept. 5th). Reduced hours available into October.
